Wisconsin Center for the Blind and Visually Impaired (WCBVI) presents...

Giving of Yourself

October 20th & 21st, 2017

Learning to help yourself by helping others

For Wisconsin students, aged 8-16,
who are blind
or visually impaired

Overview

Students: This will be a fun and engaging weekend where you will meet new friends, make blankets for residents of a nursing home, thank you bags for police, self-care bags for the homeless, dog treats and dog and cat toys for a Humane Society, all while enjoying fall recreation.

Teachers: This event will build and enhance development in the expanded core areas of compensatory skills, concept development, orientation and mobility, daily living skills, problem solving, social interaction, and recreation and leisure.

Parents: You will not need to stay at the camp as there will be enough staff to assist all children. There will be a block of rooms available at reduced rates for a hotel in Stevens Point. Information will be given during registration.

For: Wisconsin students ages 8-16, who are blind or visually impaired and receiving IEP-based vision services

Where: Wisconsin Lions Camp, 3834 County Rd A, Rosholt WI

Arrival: Friday, October 20, 2017, 3:00-4:30 pm

Departure: Saturday, October 21 6:00 p.m.

Details:
TVI and O&M Teachers are welcome!

Students are responsible for transportation to and from Lions Camp.

All meals will be provided.

Students will have the chance to...

-  Meet new people
-  Experience outdoor autumn activities
-  Make crafts
-  Help the community
